

DIGEST

ISP's biggest operating blast furnace in India

The largest blast furnace in India was blown-in at SAIL's IISCO Steel Plant (ISP) in the presence of chairman, SAIL, CS Verma, in the midnight of November 30 in Burnpur. Named 'Kalyani', the furnace has a useful volume of 4160 cubic metres and has now become the biggest operating blast furnace in the country.

NIC contribution

National Insurance Co Ltd (NIC), contributed ₹ 1 crore to the Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Relief Fund. Director and general manager, AV Girija Kumar, handed over the cheque to chief minister, Andhra Pradesh, Chandra Babu Naidu.

Club, Vidyut Bhavan, organised a photography-cum-sculpture exhibition named Srijan from November 26-29. CMD, WBSEDCL, Narayan Swaroop Nigam, IAS, and MD, WBSETCL, Susanta Kumar Das, visited the exhibition on November 27.

HSCL construction

The first steel building in eastern India called 'Ispat Pragati Bhawan' was inaugurated on November 30. It was constructed by Hindustan Steelworks

Construction Limited (HSCL). This edifice was built for INSDAG. President, INS-DAG, Sajjan Jindal, inaugurated the building. CMD, HSCL, M Bhaduri, was

BEPL honour

BEPL Construction Company was given the SKOCH Order of Merit Certificate for India's Best Projects-2014 on November 20. The SKOCH Award for the mega Project 'Rail-cum-Road Bridge' on the river Ganga at Munger, was given by union minister, M Venkaiah Naidu on November 21. The award was received by MD, Baffin Engineering Projects Ltd, Brig BD Pandey, SM (Retd).

ER information

○ Review meeting held

○ Efforts for cleanliness

ER has given top priority to cleanliness in trains, stations and other railway premises. To reach this goal, several high-level meetings have been organ-ised at ER's HQ and divisional levels.

○ Safety and train running

ER has adopted a number of steps towards ensuring zero lapses in the safe running of train services over its jurisdiction. GM, ER, RK Gupta, has held high-level meet-ings emphasising upon safety and con-veyed to all concerned that there will be no compromise regarding safety issues.

SAIL report

AK Tiwari; D(P), PC Panigrahi; D (F), KK Parida; and others.

OBC new branch

Oriental Bank of Commerce (OBC) recently opened a new branch at Kayalpada in Cuttack district. The branch was inaugurated in the presence of SP Vigilance, Amitendra Nath Sinha and regional head, Bhubaneswar Region, DK Malhotra.

Omfed observance

The birth anniversary of Dr Vergese Kurien was celebrated as National Milk Day in Omfed, at all its units, and district milk unions and societies.

RSP happenings

○ CEO's address to execs

"All units have to work in tandem to achieve the desired results. We have to work as a united entity to ensure success," CEO, Rourkela Steel Plant (RSP), exhorted GS Prasad, to a gathering of front-line